ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. On joint request of learned counsel for the respective parties, this matter is taken up for final hearing today.

2. As a result of the hearing and discussion, learned counsel for the petitioner clarifies that prayer made in para 16(b) be considered in the context of the averments made in the petition to the effect that the petitioner will be satisfied if orders are passed pari passu as in the case of order annexed at Annexure-F.

3. On the facts and circumstances of the case it appears to be a reasonable request, particularly since the pettitioner appears to be economically backward and otherwise under-privileged.

4. Consequently the impugned order at Annexure-E is quashed and set aside and the matter is remanded back to the State Government for a reconsideration of the matter, and for passing orders pari passu to the orders passed at Annexure-F (if otherwise permissible in law).

5. On the basis of the aforesaid observations and directions, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present petition. This petition is accordingly disposed of. Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
